

The Country Music Completion Quiz, III OF 3, KEY

Instructions: Match each concluding lyric phrase on the right with the most appropriate opener on the left. Properly matched, each is deathless prose. Note: there's not a rainy night or a pickup truck in any of these.

Bonus:

"I'm fond of the cheatin' songs that deal with the pleasures of sin and the wages thereof—mournful peckerwood fables of folly and comeuppance. There's Hank Snow's '90 Miles an Hour' whose story ends, DOA, in the emergency room of love. Snow warns us that adultery is 'like a mad motorcycle with the devil in the seat / goin' 90 miles an hour down a dead-end street.'" Lance Morrow

"Is it still over, are we through? Since my phone still ain't ringin', I assume it still ain't you." Randy Travis
